MULTIMODAL 2010

Multimodal 2010 is the UK's only event dedicated to helping you maximise the efficiencies of your freight transport, logistics, and supply chain management procedures.

Now in its third year, Multimodal is the premier meeting place for shippers to gather under one roof and compare suppliers, modes, routes, and transport solutions. Register for Multimodal today and ensure you benefit from the most reliable and cost effective transportation options available.

Multimodal is designed to benefit all sizes of shipper. Whether you are exporting or importing large quantities, or simply moving small quantities around the UK on an infrequent basis, Multimodal will deliver results tailored to your company's specific transportation and logistical needs!

Having welcomed over 3,000 visitors and 130 plus exhibitors to Multimodal 2009, the event has now moved to Hall 4 at the NEC to cater for the expansion. Over 85% of exhibitors have already contracted for stand space and are returning to Multimodal in April 2010.

Incorporating free to attend seminars and briefings, Multimodal continues to attract the highest calibre shippers operating throughout the UK and Europe.

All visitors are invited to the Multimodal Hog Roast, sponsored by Kewill, and to tour Hams Hall and BIFT. See www.multimodal.org.uk for further details.

Returning and new exhibitors at Multimodal 2010 include Associated British Ports, BMI Cargo, Charles Gee Group, Port of Tyne, Corporate Solutions, Dachser, DB Schenker, DSV, Ewals Cargo Care, Norfolk Line, OOCL, PD Ports, Peel Ports, Samskip, The Malcolm Group, Transport Exchange Group and The Woodland Group to name but a few.

Multimodal is free to attend. Register today, quoting your promotional code, and benefit from meeting your entire transport and logistics supply chain.

What our 2009 visitors said:

"Very useful opportunity to compare the propositions from the leading logistics providers in one place"

Unilever

"Met with existing suppliers and found some new ones. Found the seminars and informal talks on different stands to be very informative"

Sara Lee International

"A good mix of companies - very useful"

Sainsbury's

"The best use of my time at an event like this since Multimodal 2008. Great format, location, exhibitors and delegates. A real opportunity to meet people who are active - excellent"

SGBD UK

"Very impressed, I hadn't realised it was such a large event. Came away with a lot of information"

DLC Worldwide

"Very good - and we will see even more at Multimodal 2010"
